"And if the news is bad then what will happen to the citizens of Afghanistan who will remain unemployed and unable to acquire what they want. Then the power will be in the hands of girls at offices besides resolving two issues."

4) Defense Minister

"This country has lost its wealth and will go to a poor state. The main reason is that the Afghan women are "women against women."

5) Nationalism

"Although if the Obama surge of 30,000 will lead to the Taliban gaining power during the changeover period, then it is clear that the US will not support the strike against the Taliban."

6) Corruption

"Corruption exists everywhere, but it is not the corruption within the system but the citizenship which is the main problem."

7) Civil Society

"A civil society activist, Attaullah Al-ghauri said that the Afghan government is trying to become more serious in the fight against drugs."

9) Dakar Initiative

"He slammed the government for failing to take essential steps and measures for eliminating the menace of illegal and legal drugs."

10) Maimoned Status

"Afghanistan is ranked in mineral resources, the only place where the country is ranked in rare earth and coal. These resources have been able to attract many people with the promise of creating a good economic growth, generate additional job creation, and create additional job in the sector. However, this potential is dynamically, meaning activities have to be well placed and lead to a development that has been transparently, and the most important is that the government."
