The Taliban have said they would start bilateral meetings in an effort to reach a peace deal with the US. The Taliban have also called for the US to "stop the violence" and "start the peace process.

21) Men and Women

Several women have been killed in recent attacks in Afghanistan, highlighting the ongoing violence against women in the country. The women's rights movement has been advocating for more rights and freedoms for women in Afghanistan, but progress has been slow due to the ongoing conflict and the Taliban's opposition to women's rights.

22) Gas Prices

Gas prices have increased in Afghanistan, with prices rising to 500 afghani per kilogram. The increase in gas prices is causing concern among Afghan consumers, who are already struggling with high living costs due to the ongoing conflict and economic challenges.

23) Business

A number of businesses in Afghanistan have been affected by the ongoing conflict, with many businesses shutting down or reducing their operations. This has had a negative impact on the economy and on the livelihoods of many Afghans.

24) Health

The healthcare system in Afghanistan is struggling to provide adequate care to the population. Many hospitals and clinics are understaffed, and there is a lack of medical supplies and equipment. This has made it difficult to provide quality care to those who need it.

25) Education

The education system in Afghanistan is facing numerous challenges, including a lack of qualified teachers, inadequate facilities, and a lack of resources. This has made it difficult for many children to receive a quality education.

26) Security

The security situation in Afghanistan remains critical, with the Taliban and other militant groups continuing to carry out attacks across the country. The government and international community are working to improve security, but progress has been slow due to the ongoing conflict.

27) Economy

The economy in Afghanistan is struggling due to the ongoing conflict and economic sanctions. Many Afghans are facing poverty and unemployment, and the country is relying on international aid to support its economy.

28) Human Rights

Human rights violations continue to be a serious concern in Afghanistan, with reports of abuses by both the Taliban and the Afghan government. This has made it difficult for the Afghan people to live in peace and have their basic human rights protected.