Google to Build Five Solar Parks in Denmark

WASHINGTO N - U.S. President Donald Trump is set to welcome Australia’s prime minister on Friday in one of the last state visits to Washington. The five Danish solar parks will have a total capacity of 500 megawatts. The first three parks are expected to be ready by early 2020, while the last two are in the later stages of planning. The parks will be constructed by the Renewable Energy Supplier Better Future and European Energy Friday.

IJL

Tehran has put all his cards on the table in his recent speech against any potential US attack, but Washington and Tehran, after armed drones struck two Saudi oil-state facilities, have vowed to work together.

Israel’s Netanyahu Clings to Power as Coalition Talks Loom

BERLIN - The German federal government and Farooq, a retired general, signed a “concrete measure” to achieve climate target sets for 2030, announced the official website of the government. Germany, together with its European partners, signed a protocol to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in Europe by 2050. The protocol compared to 1990, reduced.

Kyrgyz Energy Agency’s Boss Reappointed

Nur-SULTAN - For the second time in his history, on Sept. 30, the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) expressed the concern of Kazakhstan about the political, economic, and social situation in the country. The IAEA’s Director General, Rafael Mariano Grossi, underlined the importance of creating a conducive environment for the implementation of the nuclear program in the country. The meeting was held in the IAEA’s headquarters in Vienna.

Meetings of 2 International Judicial Advocates in Kazakhstan

NUR-SULTAN - For the second time in five months, on Sept. 30, the IAEA’s Director General, Rafael Mariano Grossi, visited Kazakhstan. The visit is part of the IAEA’s efforts to strengthen cooperation with the country on nuclear safety and security.

Center-2019: 128,000 Troops Participate in Massive Russian, China & India Drill

NEW DELHI - Russia and China have launched a large-scale military exercise alongside China and India, with maneuvers synchronized to counter the threat from the Pakistan-based terrorist groups. The Concerned-armed forces of Russia, China, and India, along with personnel from four Central Asian nations, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, and Uzbekistan, are taking part in the exercise.

NAB to Record Arrests Onwards

ISLAMABAD - The National Accountability Bureau (NAB) has decided that the purpose of the inquiries of the office is to record the arrest of suspects before the time of arrest. (Agencies)

Iran’s Zarif Says Saudia, UAE Want ‘to Fight Iran to the Last American’

DUBAI - Iranian Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif has dismissed any hopes that an agreement with Saudia Arabia and the United Arab Emirates is on the horizon. “There is no conversation with the UAE and United Arab Emirates,” Zarif tweeted on Friday in a direct attack on the US president. (Reuters)

Ireland Says Brexit Deal Is Not Yet Close but ‘Mood Music’ Has Improved

LONDON - Ireland will present its priorities in Brexit talks to the EU, following a meeting with EU leaders on Friday. Irish Foreign Minister Simon Coveney was speaking after his role in negotiations to resolve the sticking point of three-year Brexit process was raised in recent days. Sterling shot up to 2-month highs on Tuesday when European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker said a deal was possible.

German Government on track to Meet Climate Targets 2030

BERLIN - The German federal government and the environment minister, Sigmar Gabriel, signed an agreement on measures to achieve climate targets set for 2030. The agreement was announced by the environment minister. Germany, together with its European partners, signed a protocol to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in Europe by 2050. The protocol, which was announced by the environment minister, reduced.

Ireland Says Brexit Deal Is Not Yet Close but ‘Mood Music’ Has Improved

LONDON - The UK government has explained in response to MP’s questions that the deal to avoid a hard border between the EU and the UK, which the government had advertised, was not yet close.

Reporting on its decision to extend the transition period, the government said that the deal was a “good deal” but that there was still “work to do.” (Bloomberg)

Government回应称其在脱欧谈判中所持的立场没有改变，但警告称可能需要采取的风险更大。英国广播公司引用了这名官员的言论。“这将是一个非常艰难的谈判，”英国广播公司引用了这名官员的言论。“我们将继续与欧盟进行艰苦的谈判，但我们将坚持我们的立场。”(Bloomberg)