Main News Page

1,500 Buses to Start Operating in Kabul

KABUL - The Kabul Municipality has built 240 public buses worth millions of Afghani for an official announcement of the Municipality.

An official in the Ministry of Transport said that around 1,200 buses will start their operations in the coming two weeks.

18 M AfS Irrigation Dam Inaugurated in Helmand

KABUL - Authorities in Afghanistan’s southern Helmand province have inaugurated a major dam project that could help reduce water shortages in the area.

The project, which was funded by the World Bank, is expected to benefit more than 66,000 families in the northern district of Zari in Balkh Province, Afghan officials said in a statement.

Maulana Gul Ahmad and other eight Taliban militants were killed in an operation near the capital, Kabul, provincial police chief Muhammad Halfiz Wahzad said on September 22.

The Taliban claimed they had killed at least 12 Afghan fighters in action near the capital.

Afghanistan’s security forces have heavily criticized the Taliban for killing civilians during night-time raids.

Afghan and allied international forces, including NATO, have killed more civilians in the first three months of this year than the Taliban and fighters from other armed groups, a UN report said in April.

At least 300 civilians have been killed by pro-government forces between 2009-2019.

Outlook Horoscope

Taurus (May 21-June 20)

- A possible call to action later this week could be the focus of potential future activity. So make the most of the opportunities.
- Some people could be very pleasant and quite stimulating. So bring all of them to the focus of potential future activity.
- You could also make some serious plans now or you’ll be too antsy for words.